Crossroads Tasmania
A mission of the Uniting Church
Presbytery of Tasmania

Christian fellowship together with people with disabilities

Crossroads Tasmania

Crossroads Tasmania is part of an interdenominational Christian fellowship together with people with disabilities.

Our Aims

To provide Christian fellowship together with people with disabilities through:

- ◆ branch activities - providing spiritual, recreational, educational and social opportunities
- ◆ holidays and day trips
- ◆ fostering and encouraging full acceptance and integration of people with disabilities

Crossroads sincerely welcomes your active interest, involvement, prayer and support

How does Crossroads function?

Through the branches:

- ◆ each branch is part of the local church congregation who give care and support
- ◆ activities at each branch are tailored to meet the needs of the members. In this way each branch develops its own unique character
- ◆ programmes cover a wide range of activities – active and quiet games, music, craft, visiting speakers and entertainers, dinners, outings and devotions
- ◆ day trips and holiday weekends are organised on a state and branch level.

The State Committee

- ◆ sponsors and supports new and existing branches
- ◆ organises and encourages participation in state-wide activities
- ◆ liaises with the wider community
- ◆ organises training of enablers
- ◆ in Tasmania, is responsible to Uniting Church in Australia Presbytery of Tasmania
- ◆ Crossroads Tasmania seeks to organise conferences, seminars and church services aiming to bring together people in the community and church to focus on issues of mutual concern and interest.

Future Directions

Crossroads seeks to raise awareness and advocate for people with disabilities through:

- ◆ active inclusiveness in the church and community.
- ◆ support for families and carers
- ◆ formation of new Crossroads branches
- ◆ recruitment and training of enablers
- ◆ communication and promotion of the role of Crossroads.
