

Baptcare is a faith-based, not-for-profit organisation that draws on over 75 years' experience to deliver quality services with care and respect.

We are an inclusive service that welcomes diversity and promotes cultural safety. Baptcare respects people of different cultures, gender, sexual identity as well as age, ability and religion.

We respectfully acknowledge the Tasmanian Aboriginal people as the traditional and continuing custodians of this land.

We are a child safe organisation and take action to promote child wellbeing and prevent harm to children and young people. We ensure our staff and volunteers are responsible for children's safety across all areas of our work.

We partner with Strong Families, Safe Kids Advice and Referral Line and are the lead agency for the Integrated Family Support Service Alliance.

How can our Integrated Family Support Service help?

Using evidence-based programs and practices, Integrated Family Support Service works to improve the safety, wellbeing and health of children and their families – from before birth to 18 years.

This service offers practical parenting assistance and strategies, casework and case management services for families experiencing challenges and vulnerabilities.

We provide practices to improving confidence and enjoyment in parenting as well as managing challenging childhood behaviours.

We work in partnership with the Strong Families Safe Kids Advice and Referral Line and we will consult with them if there are serious concerns about children's safety or welfare.

Families with young children

Families with teenagers

- We provide help with understanding the developmental stages of children and adolescents.
- Practices dealing with the impact of substance abuse and dealing with the impact of mental health issues.
- Support managing family conflict and breakdown and accessing social and professional support networks within the community.
- Practicing time management and providing other parenting resources.
