About us

Hobart City Mission have been supporting the people of Southern Tasmania since 1852. We meet people where they are, when help is most needed. We support people with care, understanding and compassion. We empower people and look for new ways to help our community through innovative solutions.

Our vision

Creating compassionate, resilient and connected local communities.

Our Mission

Guided by Christian values, Hobart City Mission brings together people who give and people in need, through the provision of client focused, holistic and innovative services.

Our Values

Honesty

What we do

Small Steps provides a safe home and support for you and your child.

We can support you if you are at risk of homelessness and need housing. The program also provides a nurturing support circle for you and your child.

This is a place for you and your child to grow together. You can work on your goals with the support of a caring community.

There are twelve units at Small Steps, which are all for young mums and their children.
